After paying for the meal ence, in session at Altoona, on Tues | Cogan, accompanied by the woman, went to the Pennsylvania depot and about 2,15 o'clock, asked Agent Hardman for a ticket to Bedford, but subsequently had it changed to Saxton. His telescope was checked to the same piace. While in the ticket office Cogan and his companion kept up a quarrel which began several hours before, the former being under the influence of iquor. After the ticket had been purchased the woman went to the National House and Cogan went up street. He asked a citizen where the nearest hardware store was, and upon receiving the information, entered W. J. Sheavly's store and asked for a revolver, stating that he was in a hurry, as he wanted to go to Saxton on the train. From the weapons which Mr. Sheavly show ed him he selected a six-shot, 32calibre Harrington and Richardson revolver, which the merchant loaded for him. After paying $5 for the pistol, Cogan placed it in his pocket and went

Baltimore. Letter to J. W. Galley, Bedford, Pa. Dear Sir: Your business is, when house burns down, to give the owner some money to build a new one. It is a good business. Queer that the world got on so long without it. We paint the one that burnt down and the new one, too. What is better. we paint the houses that don't burn

You insure the houses that burn; we insure the houses that don't. You good dressers, have the ashes and smoke; all the houses are ours. We paint Lead and Zinc; Davoe. We sell the paint to painters; we don't paint. Lead and oil is the old-fashion paint.

Devoe is zine ground in with the lead and linseed oil: the best paint in the world: and the cheapest, because it takes fewer gallons than mixed paints and it wears twice as long as lead and oil. Nobody wants poor paint; there's lots of it. though, in the world. A. M. Griffen, Plainfield, N. J.

writes: Mr. Aaron Higgins, of Plainfield, al ways used 15 gallons of mixed paint for his house. Last Spring he bought 15 gallons of Davoe and had 4 gallons Yours truly,
